ALLIES ARE WINNING ON EVERY WAR FRONT

Bulgarians Evacuate Greek Forts Which They Could Not Hold After Arrival of Allied Warships—The Russians Are Winning New Successes in the Carpathians and Taking Numbers of Prisoners—The Allies Are Pushing the Bulgarians Back and They Are in Rapid Retreat—The Greek Premier Has Resigned Because He Can No Longer Maintain Neutrality. It is Believed Great Political and Military Changes Are Impending.

London, Sept. 12.—The Bulgarians have evacuated all forts at the Greek ports of Kavala, which they occupied about a month ago, the Petit Parisien learns from a semi-official source. A fourth has been handed over to the Greeks, as they are of no military value to the Bulgarians after the arrival of the Entente warships.

New successes for the Russians in the Carpathians was announced by Petrograd. Several heights near the Bukovina border and Kapul mountain also were captured with nearly a thousand prisoners.

The French troops co-operating with the British in a new offensive on the Struma front, in Macedonia, captured a village from the Bulgarians and the British troops which crossed the river seized the Bulgarian trenches, according to the London official statement.

Paris says the French, in an offensive against the Bulgarians, captured positions on a two-mile front to the depth of eight hundred yards. Under pressure of the new offensive the Bulgarians are retreating, pursued by the allies, says an Exchange Telegraph Athens dispatch, which adds the Bulgarians suffered severe losses in a battle of 6 hours.

Greek Premier Resigns.

London, Sept. 12.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens says it is confirmed there officially that Premier Zimis has tendered his resignation and that every effort is being made to persuade him to withdraw it. The political situation in the near East is of no less interest to European capitals at this moment than the military outlook, as it is believed important changes are impending. The reasons for Zimis' resignation are not set forth in the Athens dispatch. It is believed his offer to resign is due to the fact that he accepted the post with the understanding he was to maintain neutrality and in view of Bulgarian occupation of Greek territory, finds this is no longer possible.

Brilliant Program Marks the Beginning of the New School Year. Large Crowd Present.

The opening exercises of the Bryan Baptist Academy at 10 o'clock this morning in the chapel of that institution was auspicious from every point of view, and a most inspiring occasion.

The spacious rooms, when the program of the hour was given, were filled to overflowing with visitors, friends and patrons of the school, the board of directors and faculty and the largest body of students ever yet in attendance on opening day.

President and Mrs. M. E. Weaver, who have done so much to make the Bryan Baptist Academy, not only an ideal school of training, but also to give to the every day life of the students that home-like environment so much desired; cordially met all who came to the exercises this morning, and made them feel welcome.

Dr. Weaver made a few opening remarks, after which the audience sang "America," with Mrs. J. H. Conway at the piano.

The pastors of the various churches of the city were present and, when called upon, responded graciously with helpful words of encouragement to the school and its students. Rev. J. C. Welch, Rev. C. T. Tally and Rev. Charlton Storey each made appropriate talks.

Rev. A. E. Ingram of Calvert, a member of the board of directors of the Bryan Baptist Academy, made a few appropriate remarks in his introduction of Hon. Clarence Ousley, who was the speaker of the hour.

In his characteristic way Mr. Ousley brought to the audience a message of beautiful and practical truth and inspired his hearers with thoughts of higher and more useful living. He emphasized the thought that education is the foundation of all progress, and explained to the students that in their pursuit of knowledge they should remember that they are under obligation to the church, the state and civilization, to prepare themselves for the betterment and uplift of society, now and in the future. That they owe a debt to the world that can not be paid in money; that it must be paid in Christian manhood and womanhood, and the ennobling influences that such lives bring to the world.

Mrs. J. Webb Howell then sang in fine voice, "Good-Bye Summer," by Lyle, and Miss Ruth Boatwright gave a brilliant piano solo.

The members of the faculty were each introduced to the audience by President Weaver, after which the assembly was adjourned with a closing prayer by Rev. J. M. Bullock. With this splendid program was Sympathy Strike Remote.

New York, Sept. 12.—The danger of a general sympathy strike by the labor union of the city to help enforce the demands of the striking traction employees now seems remote in view of the statement that only unions could be involved where they were concerned with the operation of the street cars.

With the determination of getting results the committee, from the Commercial Association headed by Mr. O. S. Johnson of the Bryan and Brazos County Commercial Association and the Commissioners court headed by County Judge J. T. Maloney, left this city early this morning in automobiles for Navasota where a joint conference will be held between the Brazos county officials and the Grimes county officials in that city. A party from the Navasota Chamber of Commerce will meet the Bryan crowd out on the road and pilot them into the city.

As the party left this morning County Judge Maloney remarked that he thought the only thing necessary to put the road at Barker's Prairie in condition was a few picks and shovels and even went so far as to suggest that the party carry same along and just put the road in first class condition while out there today.

The following is the personnel of the party from Bryan:

O. S. Johnson, Chairman of the Highways Committee of the Commercial Association, A. M. Waldrop, president of the Commercial Association, Secretary W. A. McElroy, County Judge J. T.
